Fail to Convince the Court.

William H. Burke and Solomon Williams, both colored, were arrested on the Long bridge last night by Policemen Harvort and Aldridge on a charge of disorderly conduct.

"These men were crossing the bridge in a wagon last night," was what Officer Harvort told Judge Kimball when the men were arraigned in the Police Court this morning. "They were very noisy and using profanity, and got out of the wagon to fight."

The defendants denied to the court that they had indulged in loud conversation, but admitted that they had partaken of the contents of a whiskey flask. Their statements failed to convince the court that the officers were mistaken, and they were taxed $5 each.
